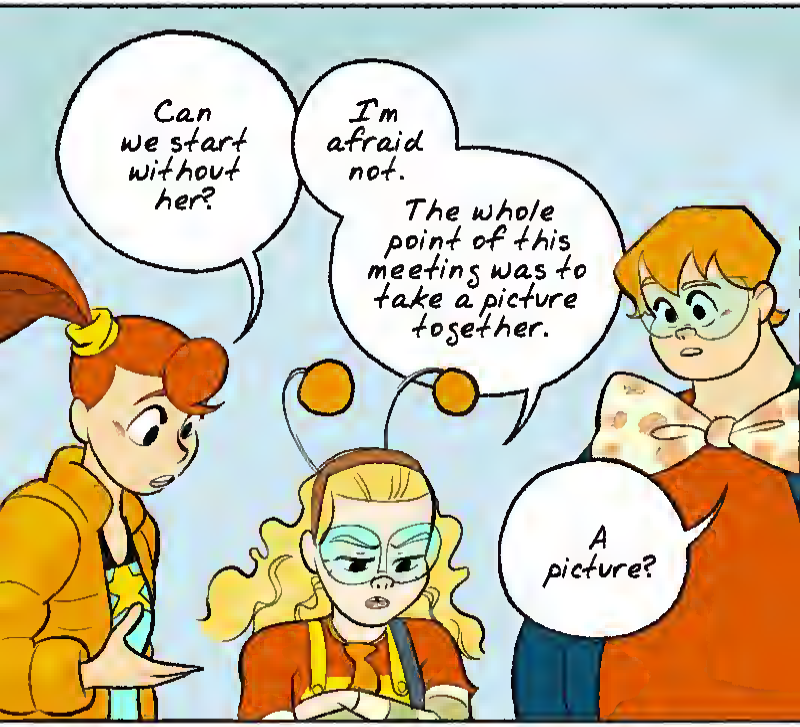
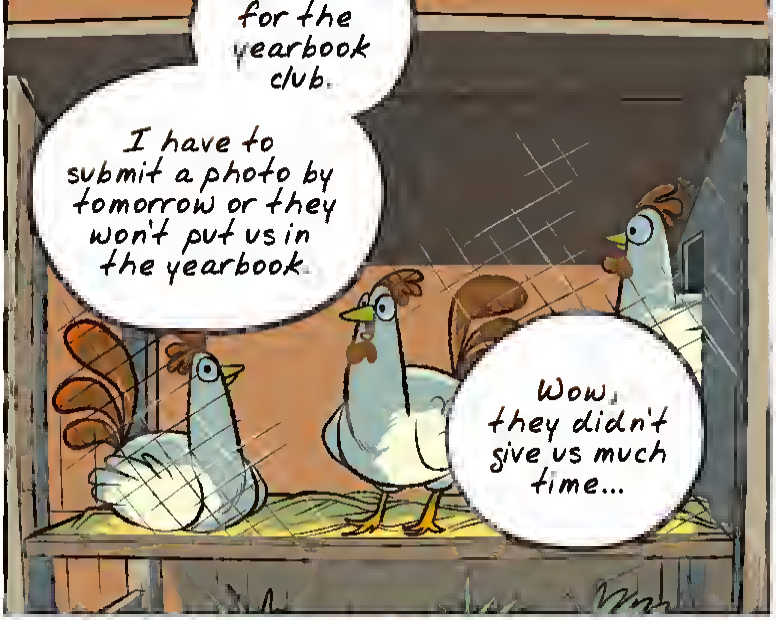
Alright, where's Meisha?

I called her but she didn't pick up.
Hmmm...



Can we start without her?
I'm afraid not.
The whole point of this meeting was to take a picture together.
A picture?

Yeah,



for the yearbook club.
I have to submit a photo by tomorrow or they won't put us in the yearbook.
Wow, they didn't give us much time...

Um-- Right...
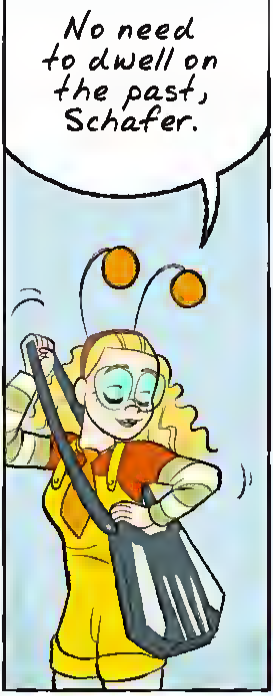
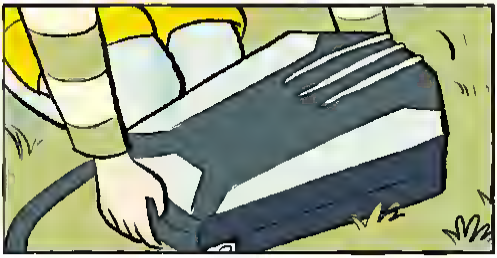
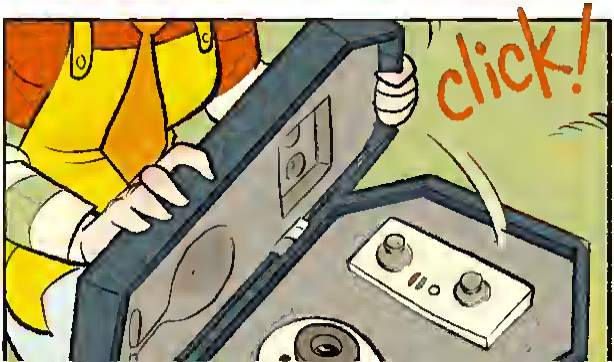
You forgot about the deadline, didn't you?

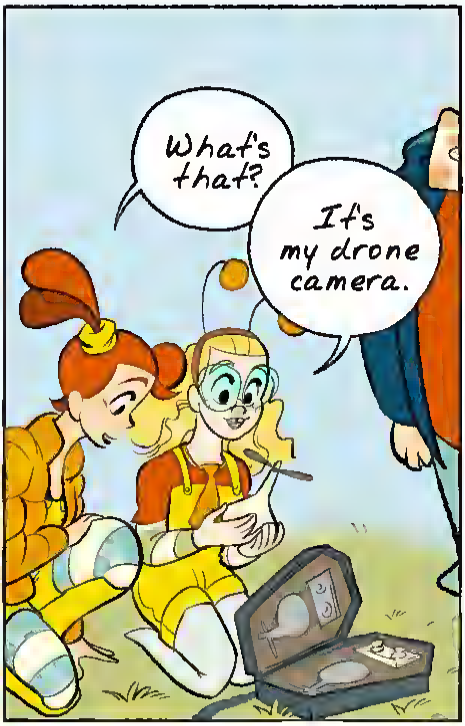


No need to dwell on the past, Schafer.





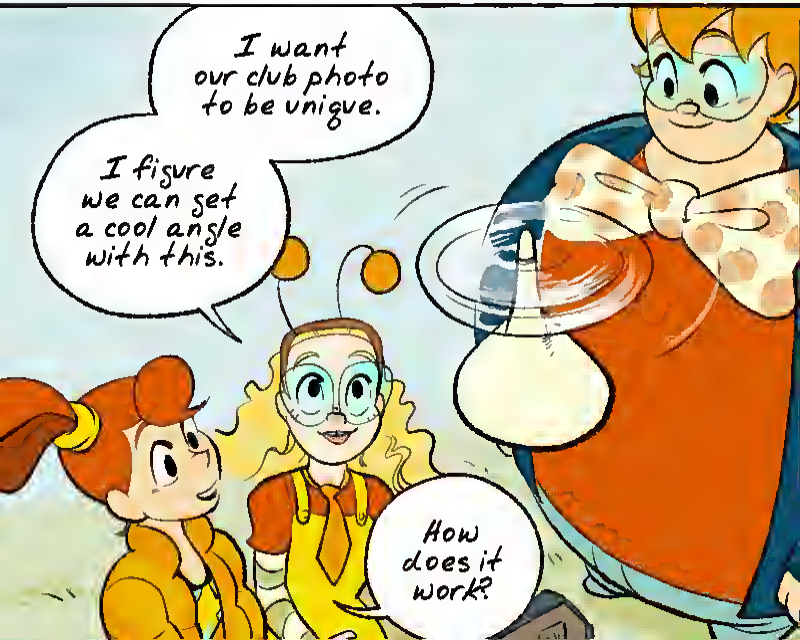
click!



What's that?
It's my drone camera.

beep!

VREE
EE



I want our club photo to be unigue.
I figure we can get a cool angle with this.
How does it work?

Well, when it's on autopilot like it is now, it just hovers and follows people around.
If you want it to take a photo all you have to do is say--
CHEESE!
FLASH!
But you can also fly it with a remote control.

Want to give it a spin?
Um--
Okay.
Put on your net gear glasses.
Why?

Tamara syncs the drone with my net gear glasses, and the world falls away as my vision is replaced by a video feed from the drone's camera.

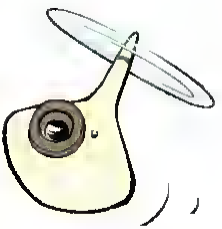
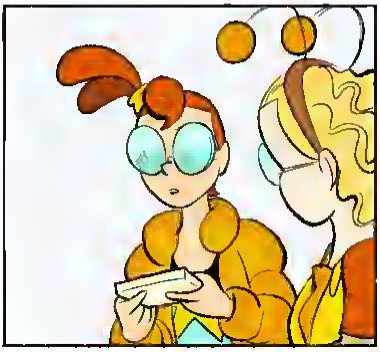
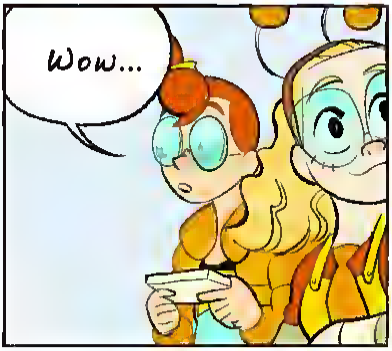
Soon I get good enough with the controls to go exploring.



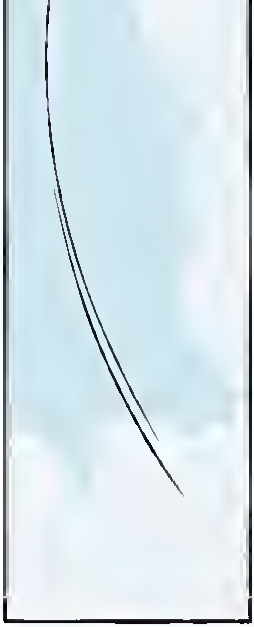
I head up into the blue skies...

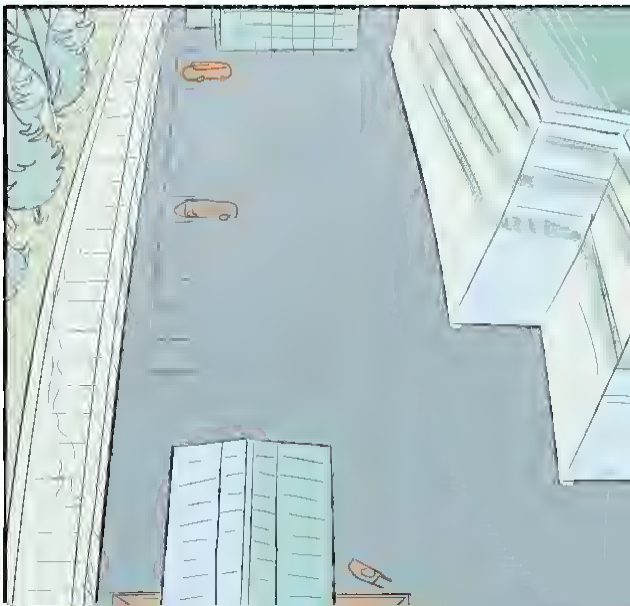




Wow...

It truly feels like...
I'm flying!



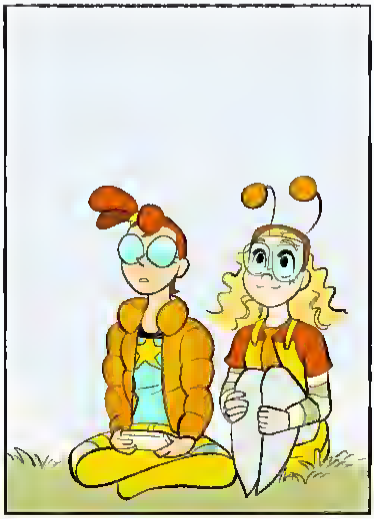


Higher!
I want to go higher!

BEEP!

Warning:
Low Battery

HUH?



AAAAHHH!!

BONK Ouch!

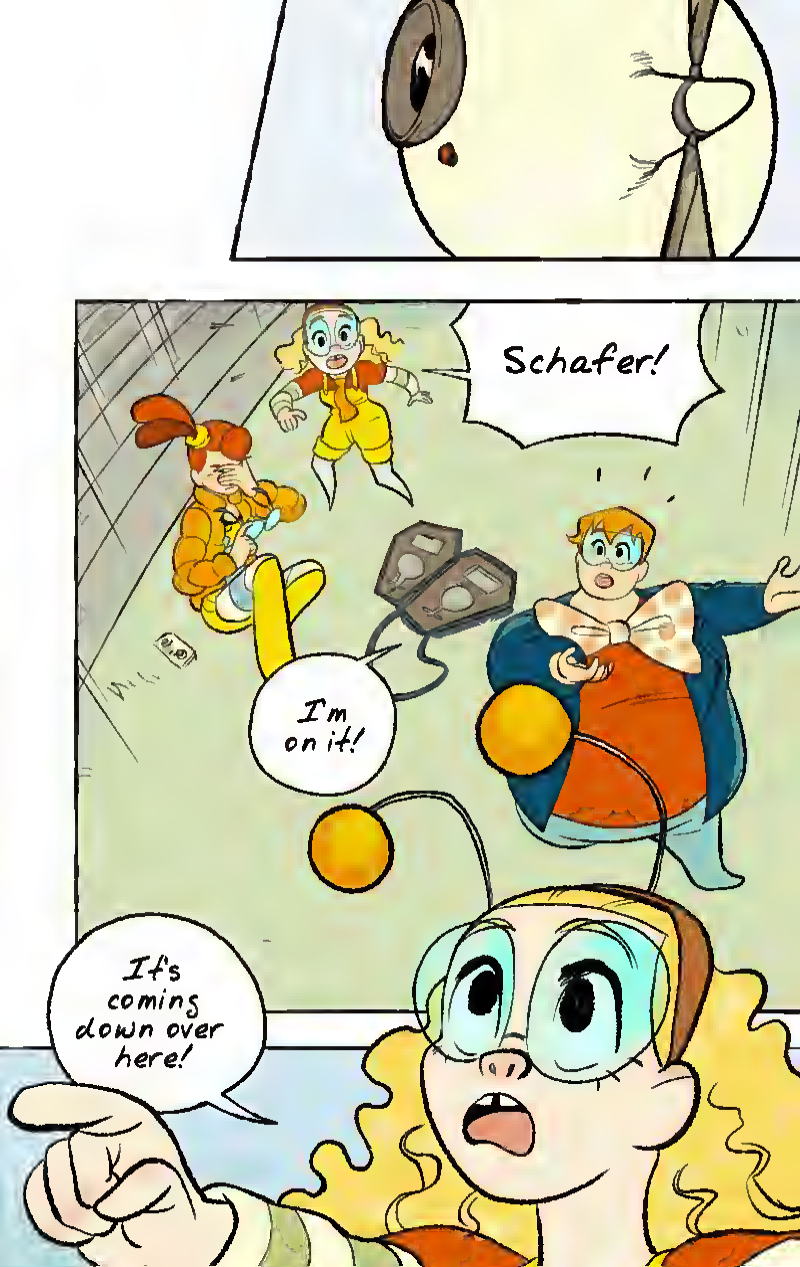
AMY!
What's wrong?!
I'm falling!!

What?

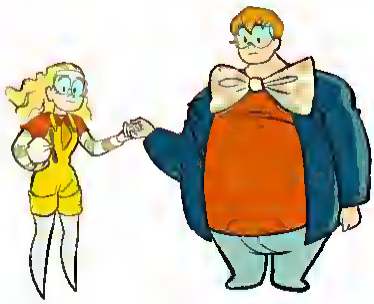


Schafer!
I'm on it!
It's coming down over here!

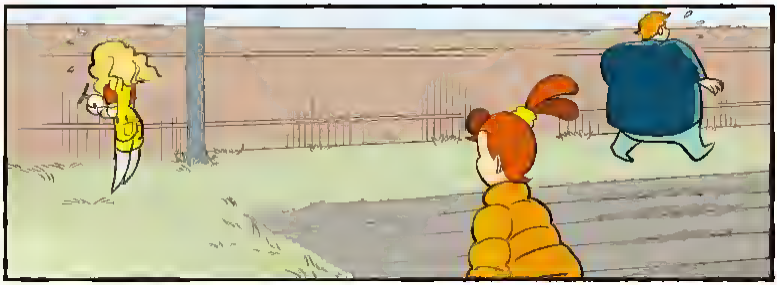
I've got it!
CRASH!!
Oof!

Tamara!
Are you okay?
Yep!
Not even a scratch on the lense!

I was asking about you not the drone, silly.
Oh.
Ha ha.



Well, thanks for--
For everything!
Ha ha.
No problem!
Ha ha.



You two.
Go out already.

Kara

"You have such a lovely, lovely story, and you are a dear for sharing it with all of us.
So, uh- here's a drawing of Oliver! This kid. I love this kid so much."

Kanna

"Trying to go for that 'modelesque' look. So fancy. Also it's a combination of Amy's face with Oliver's mysterious personality. Hope you enjoy!"

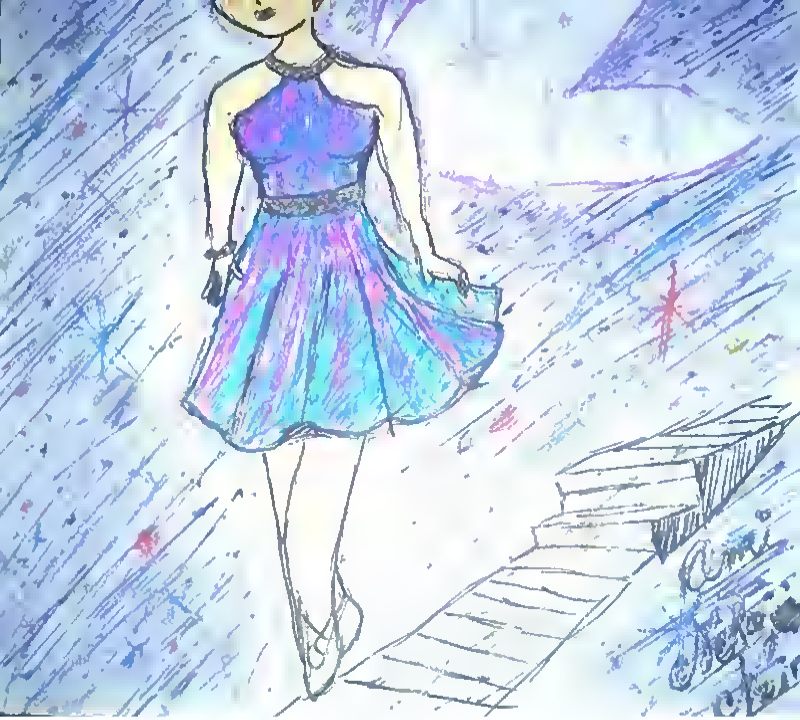
Gisela

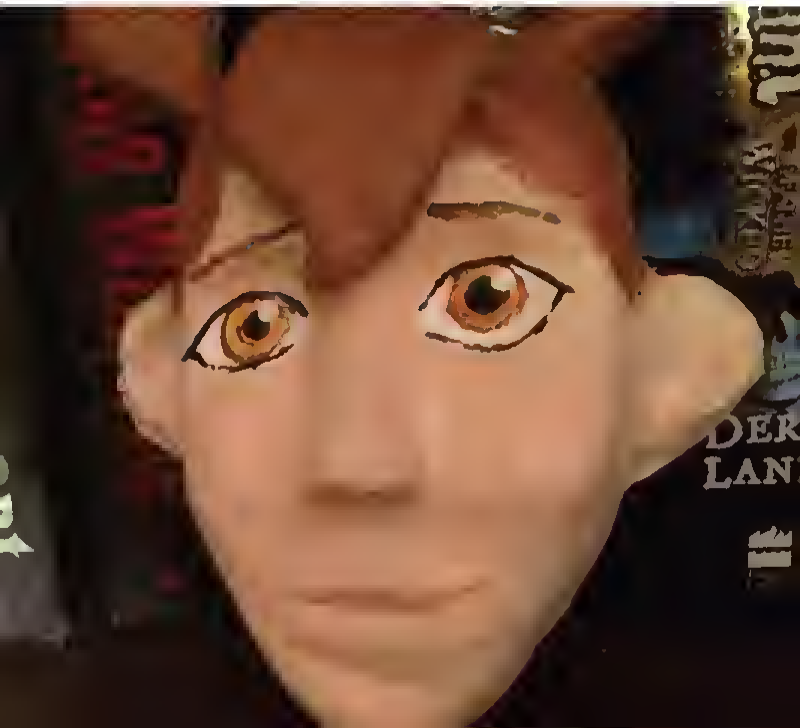
"My name is Gisela, I'm Mexican. I enjoy reading space boy"



Thanks Gisela!
Amy does kind of remind me of a fairy sometimes...

Abbie

"I'm trying to get better at sculpting, and I've never tried painting my work before. I decided that there was no better models than your characters for my first try. Thank you for everything."



"P.S. - I am very sorry for the fact that Oliver looks a bit like a Muppet."
